

Personal Data Processing Policy

Mission

Improve the quality of life of the community in which we are involved through the knowledge economy, creating a corporate culture focused on individual and social well-being, and carrying out our activities with passion, commitment, and excellence.

Vision

Be a leader in innovative, knowledge-based technology solutions, focused on generating highly profitable business with flexibility and adaptability for the energy market.

Attributes

- Innovation
- Excellence
- Expertise
- Integration

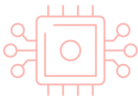

Through this Policy, BLC Global lays the foundation for its strategic direction, focusing on:

Promote a culture of personal data protection through training and awareness among our members, ensuring the development of the skills needed for everyone to act as responsible custodians of the information they manage.

Ensure that personal data is processed lawfully, transparently, and securely, respecting its purpose, limited use, and appropriate retention, and ensuring the effective exercise of data subjects' rights through clear and accessible mechanisms.

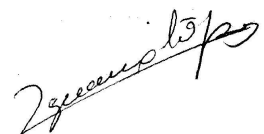

We adopt and strengthen personal data protection practices and controls aimed at complying with legal and regulatory requirements and other obligations undertaken, promoting their evolution in response to regulatory and technological changes.

We commit to continuous improvement, promoting practices and technologies that incorporate privacy and ensuring that our processes remain up to date in response to technological developments and emerging risks.
